After an excellent first event in spring 2017, 3MT® is back this fall to continue celebrating the exciting research conducted by Ph.D. and master's students. Developed by The University of Queensland (UQ), the 3MT® exercise cultivates students' academic, presentation, and research communication skills. The UNCC(3MT®) fall events will take place on November 3, 2017 (preliminaries) and November 10th 2017 (Finals). Cash prizes are offered to the winner, runner up, and “People’s Choice” presenters, and the winner will advance to compete at the Regional Conference of Southern Graduate Schools 3MT® competition in February 2018.

Software Virtualization for Students - Final Brainstorming Session
Virtualization can provide students cloud-based, or "virtual", access to specialized classroom software. In short, it's a way to bring computer labs to students. If you couldn't make earlier sessions, you're encouraged to come to this one in person or via WebEx! Your input and questions are valuable as ITS begins making long-term plans.

- Wednesday, September 13, 11:00 AM (Register)

The Story of the Charlotte Girl - Women + Girls Research Alliance
The Women + Girls Research Alliance is hosting mini-summits this fall related to the Story of the Charlotte Girl. This initiative includes a monthly book club and keynote presentations focusing on topics such as economic mobility and violence, trauma and abuse. Information on the book club meetings and keynote presentations are included in the Upcoming Events section below. For more information, visit the W+GRA website.
High School Youth Chorale

This semester, the Department of Music is offering a new, free choral experience for high school students -- the UNC Charlotte Youth Chorale. The Chorale will meet on Mondays, 5:00-6:15 p.m., at UNC Charlotte Center City. Area high school students are invited to participate in this experience. The chorale will be conducted/taught by Fred Spano with assistance from music education majors. The first rehearsal will be September 11, 2017. For more information, please visit the Department of Music’s High School Youth Chorale webpage.
