Nomination Calls

REMINDER: Call for Nominations for Honorary Degrees
One of the highlights of UNC Charlotte’s Commencement is the recognition of individuals for exceptional and distinctive service to the University or the larger community with an honorary degree from UNC Charlotte. A nomination should include the full name of the nominee, a vita, resume and/or biography (if available), and a statement of the rationale for the nomination. The nomination must also include the name of the nominator in order to be considered by the Committee. Confidentiality is very important. Therefore, the nominee should not know of his or her nomination. In addition, if you have previously nominated an individual and would like to share any additional contributions of that nominee, you are welcome to submit supplementary materials. The deadline for nominations is October 31, 2017. Nominations should be directed to Matthew Wyse, Faculty Governance Assistant, Office of Academic Affairs, 501 Reese Building.

Call for Nominations for University Mediation Coordinator (UMC)/Associate Faculty Ombuds
The Faculty Executive Committee is seeking nominations for the combined position of University Mediation Coordinator (UMC)/Associate Faculty Ombuds. To nominate someone (or yourself) for the combined position of UMC/Associate Faculty Ombuds, please send an email with letter of interest, current curriculum vitae, and written agreement by the faculty member’s department chair and dean that if selected, the faculty member will be able to serve, to facultygovernance@uncc.edu by Thursday, November 16, 2017.

Discussion with Latin American Coalition's Isael Mejia
Isael Mejia is the Economic Mobility Center Manager for the Latin American Coalition (La Coalición) and a UNC Charlotte alumnus. He will discuss the current conditions of immigrant and migrant laborers in the Charlotte area and some of the ways in which the Latin American Coalition supports and advocates for these laborers and other members of the Latin American community. Opportunities for how students, faculty, staff, and community members can get involved in supporting these efforts will be discussed. Before the talk, Karen Arrington will discuss the ways that the UNC Charlotte Career Center supports students in exploring potential career paths. This event is made possible thanks to the Chancellor's Diversity Challenge Fund and is co-sponsored by the University Career Center.

- Monday, October 23, 5:30 - 6:30 PM, Halton Reading Room (guides.library.uncc.edu/bittersweetharvest)

A Pilgrimage on the Camino Portugués de Santiago: A Talk by Dr. Susan Harden
Dr. Susan Harden, Assistant Professor in the Cato College of Education, will speak about her pilgrimage on the Camino Portugués de Santiago. Harden traveled the "Way of St. James," a pilgrimage originating in the 9th century, this summer to Santiago de Compostela, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Light refreshments will be provided.

- Tuesday, October 24, 2:00 - 3:30 PM, Halton Reading Room

Closing Talk and Reception: The Smithsonian's Traveling Exhibit Bittersweet Harvest: The Bracero Program, 1942-1964
Still Searching for Justice: Current Conditions of Farm Workers in North Carolina
Featuring guest speaker, Thomas A. Arcury, Program Director of the Translational Science Institute, Director of the Center for Worker Health and Professor and Vice Chair for Research in the Department of Family and Community Medicine at Wake Forest School of Medicine. Migrant and seasonal farm workers remain important to the success of North Carolina agriculture. Over 100,000 farm workers are employed in North Carolina each year, with more than 10,000 of them working on H-2A guest worker visas. In this presentation, Dr. Arcury considers the occupational justice experienced by contemporary North Carolina farm workers. Campus and local community organizations will be featured at the event from 5:30-6:15 during the reception. This event is made possible through the Chancellor's Diversity Challenge Fund.

- Wednesday, November 1, 5:30 PM, Halton Reading Room (guides.library.uncc.edu/bittersweetharvest)

Defiant Requiem

Film-showing with remarks by Dr. Susan Cernyak-Spatz, survivor of Terezín (aka Theresienstadt) and Auschwitz
Defiant Requiem, an 80-minute documentary film, highlights the most dramatic example of intellectual and artistic courage in the Theresienstadt (Terezín) concentration camp during World War II: the remarkable story of Rafael Schächter, a brilliant young Czech conductor who was arrested and sent to the camp in 1941.

- Thursday, November 16, 6:30 - 8:45 PM, UNC Charlotte Center City

Musical Performance of Defiant Requiem: Verdi at Terezín
Performed by the University Chorale and esteemed guest artists, Defiant Requiem combines Verdi’s magnificent music with video testimony from Terezín survivors and segments of the Nazi propaganda film made at the camp in 1944.

- Sunday, December 3, 2:00 PM, Belk Theater, Robinson Hall

Racial Justice Advocacy Program
The Racial Justice Advocacy Program presents Media and the Portrayal of Race featuring Dr. Debra Smith, Associate Professor, Department of Africana Studies, UNC Charlotte. The eight-week racial justice advocacy program is open to students on each campus and to the entire Charlotte community. The program will explore our community and region’s history and present struggles with race and racism. In our final week we will define the goals and outcomes that will guide our racial justice advocacy at the local, state, and national levels going forward. Throughout the year, they will maintain connections as a network while they advocate for change.

- Thursday, October 26, 7:00 - 8:30 PM, Rowe 161
